ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING

As a producer or broker appointed with one, or more, of the American General Life Companies LLC you are required to complete an approved AML training course. You are encouraged to take the online course provided by LIMRA, which is being offered at no cost to you and has been validated and approved by the American General Life Companies.

If you completed an AML training program provided through a source other than LIMRA, please provide supporting documentation to confirm your compliance with the AML training requirement. If you have already completed the LIMRA course for another carrier, you should revisit the site to view American General Life Companies' specific company-related information.

The LIMRA AML training website is at the following address: <https://aml.limra.com>

To enter the LIMRA Anti-Money Laundering training website you will enter a "username" which consists of the first 4 letters of your last name and the last 6 digits of your social security number. Your password is your full last name. Both username and password should be entered in lower case. For example:

NAME: John Smith
SSN: 123-45-6789

Username: smit456789
Password: smith

If you previously logged into LIMRA's AML training website, your username is the same; however, your password is the one you most recently created and is no longer your last name.
